

Directions to Mottaret

Summary: Calais - Reims - Dijon - direction Lyons - turn off to Chambéry just before Lyons - Albertville - Moûtiers - Meribel - Mottaret (600 miles)

From the channel tunnel take the A26 (French name) or E17 (Euro-route) - heading in the direction of Paris - Reims do not take the A16 which is also signposted to Paris via Boulogne

At the 260km mark you will reach the outskirts of Reims, at this point follow the A4 around Reims (this is still the E17)

Follow the A4/E17 south until you reach the 167 kilometre marker at which point take the right-hand fork back onto the A26/E17 towards Lyon - as you rejoin the A26 you should be at the 299km mark

Continue on the A26/E17 until the 392 km mark where it ends and you reach the A5

Take the left fork onto the A5 (still E17) do not go right towards Paris

At the end of the A5/E17 take the right hand fork onto the A31 in the direction of Dijon and Lyon

Continue on the A31/E17 - it changes onto the A6/E15 (at Beaune) in the direction of Lyon again do not go right towards Paris

Just after the peage (toll station) on the A6 take the turning (junction 32) onto the A46 following signs for Chambéry and Grenoble do not follow the A6 all the way into Lyon [Go round Lyon - A46 - A42 - N346 - A43]

Follow the A46 then take the A42 sign posted to Chambéry

Then take the N346 (still dual motorway)

Then take the A43 signposted to Chambéry

At the 87km mark (as you reach Chambéry) take the fork towards Albertville on the N201

Continue through Chambéry until the peage and then 2km after the peage take the right hand fork onto the A43 again

Continue straight on the A43 towards Albertville, the A43 becomes the A430 before Albertville [do not turn off towards St Jean de Maurienne on the A43]

At Albertville stay right and take the N90 to Moûtiers

At Moûtiers follow the signs for the Meribel and Courchevel

As you go up the mountain watch out for the turning up to Meribel

As you reach Meribel, stay on the right and go below past Meribel and then go through the tunnel and then its three more kilometres up to Mottaret!

At the Mottaret roundabout go straight for Le Chatelet, the apartment is at the bottom of the car park directly in front of you and is listed as Building A. Apartment number 3.
